PROCLAMATIONS.

[L.S.] THOS. R. McINNES.

CANADA.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, QUEEN, Defender of the Faith, &c., &c., &c.

To all to whom these presents shall come,—GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

D. M. EBERTS, } WHEREAS in and by two cer-
Attorney-General. } tain Acts of the Legislature of Our Province of British Columbia, the former passed in the Session thereof held in the 58th year of Our Reign, and intituled "An Act to Authorise the Revision of the Statutes," and the latter passed in the Session thereof held in the 60th year of Our Reign, and intituled "An Act Respecting the Revised Statutes of British Columbia," provision is made for the appointment of a Commission for revising and consolidating a new edition of the Laws of the Province, and also of the Statute Law of England in force in and applicable to this Province, and rules are laid down for the guidance of the Commission as to the manner of executing the said work;

And whereas the Commission was further empowered to frame and draw new provisions and suggestions for the improvement of the Law, and it was enacted that the Commission should report the execution of their commission to the Lieutenant-Governor, and deposit the result of their work with the Provincial Secretary, which work should be known as "The Revision."

And whereas it is further in effect provided that as soon as the Commission shall have so reported and deposited "The Revision," the Lieutenant-Governor may cause a correct printed roll thereof, attested under his signature and countersigned by the Provincial Secretary, to be deposited in the office of the said Provincial Secretary, which Roll shall be held to be the original thereof, and to embody the laws of the Province of British Columbia, and the Statute Law of England in force in and applicable to the Province; but any marginal notes and references to former enactments which appear thereon, shall be held to form no part of the said Statutes, but to be inserted for the convenience of reference only;

And whereas it is further in effect provided that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, after such deposit of such roll may, by Proclamation, declare a day on, from, and after which the same, or such portion thereof as he shall deem to comply with the rules laid down for the guidance of the Commission as to the manner of executing the said work, shall come into force and have effect as law by the designation of "The Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1897;"

And whereas the Commission has executed and completed the said work, and has reported the result to the Lieutenant-Governor and deposited the same with the Provincial Secretary;

And whereas it further appears that the whole of the said work complies with the said rules laid down for the guidance of the Commission with the exception of the Acts therein contained, the numbers and titles whereof are as follows:—

10. "The Arrest and Imprisonment for Debt Act;"
32. "The Bills of Sale Act;"

152. "The Pawnbrokers' Act;"

come into force and have effect as law by the designation of the "The Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1897," to all intent as though the same were expressly embodied in and enacted by the said Act secondly above recited:

Of all which premises all Our loving subjects of Our said Province, and all others whom these presents may concern, are hereby required to take notice and to govern themselves accordingly.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of the said Province to be hereunto affixed: WITNESS, the Honourable THOMAS R. McINNES, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our said Province, this fourteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and in the sixty-first year of Our Reign.

By Command.

JAMES BAKER,

NOTICE.

RECTIFICATION OF CROWN GRANT.

WHEREAS on the 30th day of July, 1897, a Crown Grant was issued to Eva Boss, James W. Troup and Thomas McGrigan, for the "American Boy" mineral claim, and known as Lot 571, Group 1, Kootenay District, but contains a wrong description of the land thereby intended to be granted, for the reason that the plan thereto attached illustrating the parcel of ground conveyed omits a portion of the land which was included in the survey of the claim for which a Certificate of Improvement was granted.

Notice is therefore hereby given that His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has directed the defective Crown Grant to be cancelled and a corrected one to be issued in lieu thereof three months from the date hereof, unless good cause is shown to the contrary.

Adverse claims must be filed with the undersigned on or before the 17th day of May next.

W. S. GORE,

Deputy Commissioner of Lands & Works.

*Lands and Works Department,
Victoria, B.C., 17th February, 1898.*

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 59.

CERTIFICATE OF THE INCORPORATION OF THE "MIRA MONTE MINING COMPANY, LIMITED."

Capital, $100,000.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Mira Monte Mining Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies' Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one hundred thousand shares of one dollar each.

The registered office of the Company will be situate at Lytton, in the Province of British Columbia.

The time of the existence of the Company is fifty years.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:—

(a.) To purchase, take over, or otherwise acquire from the respective owner or owners thereof those certain mineral claims situate near Lytton aforesaid, known as the "California Group," or any of them or any parts of the same:

(b.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, assignment or otherwise, and to hold, in the Province of British Columbia, or otherwise, mines or minerals, claims or prospects, mining lands and mining rights, coal lands, timber lands or leases, and timber claims, mills and factories of every kind, works, buildings, machinery, easements and privileges, surface rights, and to equip, operate and turn the same to account, and to sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the same, or any of the same, or any interest in the same, or any of them:

(c.) To search for, prospect, examine and explore mines and ground supposed to contain minerals or precious stones, and to search for and obtain information in regard to mines and mining districts:

(d.) To carry on the business of miners, smelters, refiners, assayers and founders and dealers in bullion and metallic products of all kinds, and to procure, by purchase or otherwise, and buy, sell or deal in mines or ores, minerals, gold dust, and all other metallic substances, compounds of all kinds, also coal, timber, logs, lumber, produce and merchandise of every description, negotiable paper, securities for money, lands and tenements, and do all kinds of commercial business conducive to the advantage of the Company:

(e.) To prospect, work, develop, improve and control mines and mineral claims, placer, quartz or otherwise, of every description, and whether owned by the Company or not, and to manufacture and work up the produce of any mines, and to crush, wash, smelt and otherwise render the ores marketable, as may be deemed necessary:

(f.) To acquire by purchase, lease or exchange, or otherwise, and to hold, work, manage, improve and sell, turn to account any lands, tenements, or property and patents of invention relating to mining operations, and to sell, mortgage, lease, sub-let or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(g.) To purchase, erect, construct, or otherwise acquire, operate, aid in or subscribe towards the construction, maintenance or improvement of concentrators, mills and factories of every kind, works, buildings, reservoirs, steam or sailing vessels, railways, trainways, boats, roads, canals, wharves, piers, landing-places, telegraphs, telephones, gas works, rolling stock, machinery, plant and all other things which may be necessary or convenient for any of the purposes of the Company, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, and to use steam, water, electricity, or any other power as a motive power or otherwise:

(h.) To purchase, apply for, take, hold, sell, dispose of and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations or other securities of any company or companies, corporation or corporations, individual or individuals, as they may deem fit:

(i.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, execute and deal with and in promissory notes, cheques, bills of exchange, or other negotiable instruments:

(j.) To enter into any agreement or arrangement with any government or corporation, supreme, municipal or otherwise, and to obtain from any such government, authority or corporation, all subsidies, rights, concessions, or privileges which may seem conducive to the Company's interests, or any of them, and to carry out and comply with such agreement or otherwise:

(k.) To enter into arrangements for sharing profits, amalgamation, joint adventure, union of interests, reciprocal concession, reconstruction, or otherwise, with any person or persons or company carrying on, or about to carry on, any undertaking or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on, or engage in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company:

(l.) To sell, assign, transfer, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, hypothecate or otherwise deal with all or any of the property or rights of the Company:

(m.) To borrow or raise by issue or upon bonds, debentures, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other obligations or securities of the Company, or to mortgage or pledge all or any of the Company's assets, income or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing such debentures or bonds; and such mortgage or mortgages may be in favour of any person or persons, trustee or trustees:

(n.) To pay all expenses in connection with the incorporation of the Company, and the obtaining the subscription of the share and debenture capital thereof, including all commissions or other remuneration to brokers or other persons for procuring or guaranteeing subscriptions for, or underwriting, placing, selling or otherwise disposing of any of the Company's shares, debentures or other securities or property, or assisting so to do, or for procuring or obtaining settlements and quotations upon any stock exchanges wheresoever situate, whether foreign or otherwise, of the share or debenture capital, either in cash or shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares:

(o.) To pay for the purchase of any mining claims, rights or concessions, either by money or by allotment of shares in this Company, and for the payment of any moneys due for salaries or otherwise by the allotment of shares in the Company:

(p.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members thereof in specie or otherwise:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered in any foreign country or state:

(r.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of these objects, or to the general profit or advantage of the Company.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 31st day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

No. 68.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF THE INCORPORATION OF THE "STIKINE NAVIGATION COMPANY, LIMITED."

Capital $100,000.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Stikine Navigation Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies' Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

The registered office of the Company will be situate in the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of merchants, ship-owners, ship-builders, carriers by land or water, lightermen, and forwarding and shipping agents, and such other business as may be conducive to the undertaking of the Company:

(b.) To purchase (either for cash or in fully paid up shares in the capital stock of the Company, or partly for cash and fully paid up shares in the capital stock of the Company), charter, hire, build and otherwise acquire and equip and maintain, run and navigate steam and other ships or vessels, and river steamers and boats, with all equipments and furniture, suitable for passengers and freight traffic, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mail and freight of all kinds in and upon the waters of the Stikine River, in the Province of British Columbia, and upon any and all tributaries thereof, or upon any waters whether in or about the said Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere in or about the Dominion of Canada.

(c.) To purchase, hire, construct and maintain wharves, docks, offices and such other buildings as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company:

(d.) To purchase, take over, and carry on the whole or any part of the business, property or liabilities of any person or company, carrying on any business which the Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the business of the Company:

(e.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company; and to lend money to guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(f.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities in or of any other Company having objects altogether or in part, similar to those of this Company:

(g.) To purchase, take on lease, hire, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, any real or personal property, and any easements, rights, licences or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business:

(h.) To promote any other company for the purposes of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(i.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and in particular to invest, or otherwise acquire, and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(j.) To remunerate any persons or company for services rendered, in assisting to place or placing, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(k.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(l.) To borrow or raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future) including its uncalled capital:

(m.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, debentures and other negotiable instrument:

(n.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, exchange, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with, all or any part of the property and rights of the Company; and may accept as consideration for any sale or exchange of all or any of the property and rights of the Company, shares partly or fully paid up, in any other company, and may distribute the same among the members of the Company, and may distribute any property of the Company among the members in specie:

(o.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(p.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control, any roads, ways, tramways, railways, branches or sidings, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores and other works and conveniences, which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof:

(q.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(r.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions:

(b.) To purchase, charter, hire, build, and otherwise acquire and equip, maintain, run and navigate steam and other ships or vessels, and river steamers and boats, with all equipments and furniture suitable for passengers and freight traffic, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, and freight of all kinds in and upon the waters of Teslin Lake in the Province of British Columbia and the North-West Territories of Canada, and upon the Yukon River, and any and all tributaries thereof, or upon any other waters whether in or about said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere in or about the Dominion of Canada:

(c.) To maintain and carry on stores and trading posts in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada, and to carry on a general trading business in all kinds of merchandise, and generally to carry on any other businesses and operations, commercial or otherwise:

(d.) To construct and maintain wharves, docks, offices, and such other buildings as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company:

(e.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire any mines, mining rights and metalliferous land in the Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere, and any interest therein, and to explore, work, exercise, develop and turn to account the same:

(f.) To crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate, and prepare for market, ore, metal and mineral substances of all kinds, and to carry on any other metallurgical operations that may seem conducive to the Company:

(g.) To purchase, take over, and carry on the whole or any part of the business, property or liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the business of the Company:

(h.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(i.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities in or of any other company having objects altogether, or in part, similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To purchase, take on lease, hire, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any easements, rights, licences or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business:

(k.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and in particular to invest or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(m.) To remunerate any persons or company for services rendered, in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(n.) To enter into any arrangement with any governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(o.) To borrow, or raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital:

(p.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, debentures and other negotiable instruments:

(q.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with, all or any part of the property and rights of the Company; and may accept as consideration for any sale or exchange of all or any of the property and rights of the Company, shares, partly or fully paid up, in any other company, and may distribute the same among the members of the Company, and may distribute any property of the Company among the members in specie:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(s.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control, any roads, ways, tramways, railways, branches or sidings, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores and other works and conveniences, which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof:

(t.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(u.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions:

(7.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, control and superintend any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, aqueducts, wharves, furnaces, saw-mills, crushing works, smelting works, concentrating works, hydraulic works, electrical works, drainage works, irrigation works, factories, warehouses, hotels, stores, ships, vessels, waggons, carts, and other works or conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations:

(8.) To use steam, water, electricity, or any other power as a motive power or otherwise:

(9.) To construct dams and improve rivers, streams and lakes, and to divert the whole or part of the water of such streams and rivers as the purposes of the Company may require:

(10.) To clear, manage, farm, cultivate, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use or improve any land which, or any interest in which, may belong to the Company; to deal with any farm or other products of any lands of the Company; to lay out sites of towns or villages on any lands of the Company:

(11.) To establish, operate and maintain stores, trading posts, and supply stations for the purposes of the Company, and the supplying goods to any of its employees or the occupiers of any of its lands, or any other persons, and for bartering and dealing in the products of mine and forest, and the carrying on of the general business of traders and merchants:

(12.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses, in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(13.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm or association, or company possessed

of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company:

(14.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire and to use, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any patents, licences, concessions and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company:

(15.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on, or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company. And to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(16.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(17.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(18.) Generally, to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business and in particular any mines, mining rights, lands, timber lands, or limits, buildings, easements, machinery, plant and stock in trade, and to accept gifts and donations in stock, shares, money or property, or otherwise howsoever:

(19.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(20.) To enter into any arrangements with any government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority, municipal, local, or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with, or if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(21.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(22.) To take, or otherwise acquire, and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(23.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(24.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(25.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company (including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company upon any terms), with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other company:

(26.) To establish and maintain agencies of this Company in any Province or Territory of the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere, and to procure the Company to be registered or incorporated in the Dominion of Canada, or any Province thereof.

(27.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Canadian Development Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of three hundred and sixty thousand dollars, divided into three thousand six hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

The registered office of the Company will be situate in the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:—

(a.) To acquire all the rights, properties, assets and privileges acquired and now held by E. C. Platt, of the City, County and State of New York, as agent and upon trust for the promoters of the Company (and for the shareholders thereof upon incorporation subject as hereinafter expressed), that is to say:

(1.) By purchase from Francis M. York and Samuel Horace Davie, both of Victoria, B. C., of all the properties and assets of the firm carrying on business in British Columbia, as the Teslin and Yukon Transportation Company, for the price of $60,000 in cash and an interest in the capital stock of the Company upon incorporation equal in nominal value to £12,000 sterling, fully paid-up and non-assessable:

(2.) By assignment from Clarence H. Mackay and H. Maitland Kersey of all the rights and privileges possessed by them under and by virtue of two certain contracts each bearing date the 21st day of December, 1897, and made by them with the firm of James Rees & Sons Company, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and W. & A. Fletcher Company, of Jersey City, New Jersey:

(3.) By assignment from H. Maitland Kersey, of all his right, title and interest in and to the wooden steamboat hulls now in course of construction at the Star Shipyard, Victoria, B. C., and the materials and plant obtained for the carrying out of such construction:

And in consideration therefor to reimburse the said E. C. Platt with the several sums, aggregating $85,000.00, disbursed by him in the premises; to assume all obligations arising under the said two contracts and in and about the construction of the said steamboat hulls, and to issue to the said Francis M. York and Samuel Horace Davie fully paid-up and non-assessable shares of the Company to the amount of $58,500.00 as the equivalent of said £12,000 sterling:

(b.) To purchase, build, charter, equip, load (either on commission or otherwise), sell, repair, let out to hire and trade with steam or other ships, boats and vessels of all kinds: to carry on the business of carriers of passengers and freight by land and water:

(c.) To buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels and effects, and for that purpose to carry on the business of a general shopkeeper or merchant:

(d.) To purchase, take on lease, hire, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, any real or personal property, and any easements, rights, licences or privileges:

(e.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise deal with, all or any part of the property of the Company:

(f.) To obtain, and from time to time renew and hold a free miner's certificate:

(g.) To acquire, by purchase, lease, concession, exchange or otherwise, mines, mining property, claims, water rights, mining rights, minerals, ores, mills, stamps, smelting and other works for treating ores and minerals, and rendering them marketable metals, including also all kinds of buildings, machinery, roads, wharves, tramways and plant useful or supposed to be useful in mining, milling, treating or reducing ores or minerals, and any concessions, grants, decrees, claims, rights or privileges whatsoever, which may seem to the Company capable of being turned to account, and to work, develop, carry out, exercise and turn to account the same, and to dispose of any such concessions, grants, decrees, claims, or privileges:

(h.) To take, or otherwise acquire, and hold shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(i.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any such company:

(j.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; to distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court, when necessary; to amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; to purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(k.) To make, accept, indorse, and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments; to lend money, and in particular to persons having dealings with the Company; to raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future:

(l.) To carry on any business, the carrying on of which the Company may think directly or indirectly conducive to the development of any property in which it is interested:

(m.) To acquire, by grant, purchase, or otherwise, concessions of any property or privileges from any government, and to perform and fulfil the terms and conditions:

(n.) To obtain any Act, law, or order of any legislature or government for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect:

(o.) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses of or in connection with the formation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company, either in cash or in shares of the Company, either wholly or partly paid up:

(p.) To establish and maintain agencies of this Company in any province, colony, or foreign state, and to procure the Company to be registered or incorporated in any province, colony, or foreign state:

(q.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, either alone or in partnership or in conjunction with any person or other association, and either as principals or agents, and including a power to pay brokerage or commission for services rendered in obtaining or guaranteeing or underwriting capital for the Company or otherwise.

(8.) To use steam, water, electricity, or any other power as a motive power or otherwise:

(9.) To construct dams and improve rivers, streams and lakes, and to divert the whole or part of the water of such streams and rivers as the purposes of the Company may require:

(10.) To clear, manage, farm, cultivate, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use or improve any land which, or any interest in which, may belong to the Company; to deal with any farm or other products of any lands of the Company; to lay out sites of towns or villages on any lands of the Company:

(11.) To establish, operate and maintain stores, trading posts, and supply stations for the purposes of the Company, and the supplying goods to any of its employees or the occupiers of any of its lands, or any other persons, and for bartering and dealing in the products of mine and forest, and the carrying on of the general business of traders and merchants:

(12.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(13.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm or association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company:

(14.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any patents, licenses, concessions and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company:

(15.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(16.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(17.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(18.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any mines, mining rights, lands, timber lands, or limits, buildings, easements, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade, and to accept gifts and donations in stock, shares, money or property or otherwise howsoever:

(19.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and negotiable and transferable instruments:

(20.) To enter into any arrangements with any government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority, municipal, local, or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with, or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(21.) To obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(22.) To take, or otherwise acquire, and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(23.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(24.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(25.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company (including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company upon any terms), with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other company:

(26.) To establish and maintain agencies of this Company in any Province or Territory of the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere, and to procure the Company to be registered or incorporated in the Dominion of Canada, or any Province thereof:

(27.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

(m.) To give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation or undertaking :

(n.) To purchase, acquire and take over the business or undertaking and the good-will of any business of any other company or individual carrying on any business of a nature or character similar to any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, and to pay for such business or undertaking either in cash or with fully paid up and non-assessable shares of this Company :

(o.) To search for, prospect, examine and explore for mines, minerals and metals ; and for any consideration to obtain any information relating to mines, minerals and mining locations and properties :

(p.) To acquire by gift, pre-emption, purchase exchange or any other lawful means, any mineral claims, placer mining claims, leases or other mining properties in the Province of British Columbia, and to acquire all the rights and interest of all parties interested in any of the said claims, leases or mining properties, and to pay for the same either in cash or in fully paid up shares of the Company :

(q.) To carry on the business of dredging, hydraulic mining, or other process or processes of mining ; to purchase, own and construct dredges, ditches, flumes or other systems of water-ways ; to purchase, own, operate, lease and sell or lease mines, minerals, and water or water rights from the government, or any person or persons, or body corporate ; to build, own and operate dredges, steamers, mills and machines, or any process or processes for raising gold from river beds or for the reduction of ores, and to sell the same :

(r.) To acquire, by purchase, development, lease and discovery, location and otherwise, mines and mining interests and mining property of any and every description throughout the Province of British Columbia ; also to engage in a general business of buying and selling, bonding, staking, mortgaging, exploring, equipping and operating mines ; constructing, operating, leasing, buying and selling mills, concentrators, and other mining, milling and ore-working and transportation machinery, equipments, adjuncts and appliances ; also to buy, sell, ship and generally deal in ores and other mine products ; and also to operate in the stocks, bonds, mortgages and other securities of other ore-working or mining companies and corporations :

(s.) To take and otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or to carry on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company :

(t.) The accumulation of capital by means of subscriptions or otherwise from members, and also by borrowing money from members, or other persons or corporations, either in this Province or abroad, by the issue of or upon mortgages, bonds, debentures, preference shares or other obligations of this Company ; to mortgage or pledge all or any of the Company's property, income or uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such mortgages, bonds, debentures, preference shares or other obligations :

(u.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any Province in Canada, or in any other place or country :

(v.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights and privileges of this Company, and undertaking its liabilities, and for any other purpose which may seem either directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company :

(w.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie :

(x.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company :

(y.) To amalgamate with any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(z.) To receive on deposit, for safe-keeping or otherwise, moneys, plate, jewellery or valuables, or carry on any other business which may seem to this Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights :

(I.) To enter into any partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, co-operation with any other company, person or persons, carrying on, or to carry on, any business or works or undertaking which this Company is authorised to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to take, purchase or otherwise acquire and hold debentures, bonds, shares or stock, or securities of any such company, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to buy, sell and otherwise deal in all such shares and securities :

(II.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by brokers, capitalists, promoters, financiers, concessionaires, merchants and persons, of any corporation, company or individual, and to do all things incidental to the management, winding-up or disposition of such estate, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed :

(III.) Generally to make, do and execute all such trusts, deeds, covenants, matters and things as the Company may deem expedient, necessary, incidental or otherwise conducive to the attainment of all or any of the above objects, or to the conversion or disposal of any security or property held or acquired by the Company.

EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANIES.

LICENCE AUTHORIZING AN EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANY TO CARRY ON BUSINESS.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CANADA :
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA. }

No. 66.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that "The Cottonwood River (B. C.) Alluvial Gold Mining Company, Limited," is authorised and licensed to carry on business within the Province of British Columbia, and to carry out or effect all or any of the objects hereinafter set forth to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends.

The head office of the Company is situate at No. 9 and 10, King Street, Cheapside, City of London.

The amount of the capital of the Company is eighty thousand pounds, divided into eighty thousand shares of one pound each.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate in Vancouver, and Charles Tetley, Agent, whose address is Vancouver aforesaid, is the attorney for the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:—

(a.) To enter into and to carry into effect, with or without modification or alteration, the agreement mentioned in Article 4 of the Company's Articles of Association:

(b.) To purchase, lease, licence, take in exchange, or otherwise acquire in the name of the Company, or in the name or names of any other person or persons, or otherwise, any mines, mining rights, claims, protected areas, ores, minerals, tailings, concentrates, alluvial deposits, forests, water rights or grants, lands, hereditaments, easements or premises in British Columbia or elsewhere, and whether of freehold, leasehold, or any other tenure, or any other property of any description which the Company may consider useful for any of its objects or purposes, and to develop, work, or otherwise turn the same to account in any manner the Company may deem expedient; and for any of the above purposes or otherwise to exercise any of the hereinafter-mentioned powers and objects of the Company, which powers and objects may be exercised independently of the primary objects stated in this clause:

(c.) To search or prospect for, excavate, quarry, dredge, win, purchase, or otherwise obtain ores and substances of the earth, and to extract, reduce, wash, crush, smelt, manipulate, and treat the same, and by any process or means whatsoever, obtain gold, silver and other metals, minerals, precious stones, or other valuable substances therefrom, or prepare the same for market, and to carry on the business of miners and workers, and winners of metals, minerals, and precious stones in all or any of its branches, and also to carry on any metallurgical operations:

(d.) To purchase, hire, make, construct or otherwise acquire, or provide, or maintain, alter, improve, manage, and work any roads, tramways, railways, bridges, piers, wharves, wells, reservoirs, flumes, water-courses, irrigation works, aqueducts, shafts, adits, tunnels, furnaces, crushing mills, works for production and supply of electric light, power or energy, hydraulic works, chemical works or reduction works of any kind, warehouses, workshops, factories, dwelling-houses, or other buildings, engines, plant, machinery, ships, boats, barges, implements, stock, goods and other works, conveniences and property of any description in connection with, or for the use in or for promoting any branch of the Company's business, or for developing, utilising or turning to account any of the Company's property, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, erection, maintenance, improvement, management, working, control or superintendence of any such works and conveniences:

(e.) To apply for and acquire by grant, licence, purchase or otherwise, any patents or patent rights, brevets d'invention, monopolies, concessions, licences, secret processes, or other privileges conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited rights, and to use, exercise, develop and work the same, and grant licences for using, exercising or working the same to such other persons or companies as may be deemed expedient by the Directors:

(f.) To purchase or otherwise acquire or undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any other company, corporation, association, firm, or person which or who shall be carrying on, or which in the case of a company shall be authorised to carry on, any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which or who may be possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to make and carry into effect arrangements for or with respect to the union of interests, sharing profits or co-operation with any other companies, corporations, or persons:

(g.) To pay for any property or business in shares (to be treated as either wholly or partly paid up) or debentures or debenture stock of the Company, or in money, or partly in shares or debentures, or debenture stock, and partly in money:

(h.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, licence, let on hire, exchange, mortgage, turn to account or otherwise dispose of absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, any of the property, rights or privileges of the Company, or all or any of its undertakings, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and to accept payment therefor in money or in shares, stock, debentures or obligations of any other company or corporation, either by a fixed payment or payments, or conditional upon or varying with gross earnings, profits or other contingency:

(i.) To establish, or promote, or concur in establishing or promoting any other company, corporation, association or private undertaking, whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking over of all or any part of the property or rights of this Company, or the carrying out of all or any of the objects of this Company, or shall be in any manner calculated to enhance either directly or indirectly the interests of the Company, or otherwise, and to acquire and hold shares, stock or securities of, or guarantee the payment of any securities issued by, or any other obligations of, any such company, corporation, association or undertaking, and to defray all or any of the expenses of the establishment or promotion of any such company or corporation, association or undertaking as aforesaid, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, corporation, association or undertaking, and to guarantee or underwrite subscriptions, or to subscribe for the same or any part thereof, or to employ others to underwrite or subscribe therefor:

(j.) To acquire, by original subscription or otherwise, and to hold or sell or otherwise dispose of shares, stock, debentures or debenture stock, or any interest in the revenues or profits of any company, corporation, association, partnership or person carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company or otherwise, and upon any return of capital, distribution of assets, or division of assets, or division of profits, to distribute such shares, stock, debentures, or debenture stock among the members of this Company:

(k.) To borrow and raise money upon loan or otherwise for the purposes of the Company, to take money on deposit at interest or otherwise, and to create and issue at par, or at premium or discount, bonds or debentures to bearer or otherwise, or debenture stock, mortgages and other instruments for securing the repayment thereof, with or without a charge upon the undertaking of the Company or its uncalled capital, or upon its income or profits, and upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the Company shall think fit, and so that the same may be either permanent or redeemable, with or without a bonus or premium, and be further secured by a trust deed or otherwise as the Company think fit:

(l.) To procure the Company to be constituted or incorporated or registered in British Columbia or elsewhere, as may be found expedient, either as a company or corporation, or to be otherwise recognised in any part of British Columbia, or in any country whatsoever, and to do all acts and things to empower the Company to carry on its business in any part of the world where it may desire to carry on the same, to open and keep a colonial office, and a colonial or foreign register or registers of this or any other company in any British Colony or Dependency, or in any foreign country, and to allocate any number of the shares in this or any other company to such register or registers, and to vary such allocation:

(m.) To apply to any Government, Parliament, local or foreign Legislature, or other authority, for, or enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities, supreme, colonial, municipal, local or otherwise, for, or otherwise acquire or obtain any orders, licences, Acts of Parliament, rights, powers, concessions and privileges that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and hold, use, work, or dispose of the same, or to apply for an Act of Parliament or order for winding up or dissolving the Company and re-incorporating its members, or for effecting any modification in the Company's constitution:

(n.) To advance or lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by persons having dealings with the Company, and generally to transact and undertake and carry into effect all such commercial, financial, trading or other businesses or operations as may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(o.) To invest, lend or otherwise deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities or without any security, and generally in such manner as from time to time may be determined, and to apply the funds of the Company in paying the legal expenses incurred in or about the formation or establishment of the Company or its registration, or in paying brokerage, commissions or other remuneration for services rendered in placing or procuring subscriptions for any of its share, debenture or other capital, or in negotiating for or obtaining contracts or orders for the Company:

(p.) To make, draw, accept, indorse, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, debentures, and all other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(q.) To amalgamate with any other company or corporation whose objects are or include objects similar to any of the objects or purposes of this Company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares, stock or otherwise) of the undertaking, with or without winding up, or by sale or purchase (for shares, stock or otherwise) of all the shares or stock of this or any such other company or corporation, subject to the liabilities of this or any such other company or corporation as aforesaid, or by partnership or any arrangement of the nature of partnership, or in any other manner:

(r.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property or rights of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made, except with the sanction for the time being required by law.

(s.) To carry on any business, enterprise, undertaking or transaction capable of being conveniently carried on or undertaken in connection with the above-mentioned objects, or that may be calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the businesses or properties of the Company, or to turn the same to account, or to convert the paid up shares into stock, or to reduce the capital to such an extent and in such manner as may be determined:

(t.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either in the name of, or by, or through any corporation, company, firm, or person as trustee, agent, contractor or otherwise, with power to appoint a trustee or trustees, personal or corporate, to hold any property on behalf of the Company and to allow any of the property to remain outstanding in such trustee or trustees:

(u.) To do all such things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, and so that the word "Company" in this Memorandum when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs of this Memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraphs) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph, or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner, and construed in as wide a sense, as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

No. 58.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that "The Teslin Lake and Yukon Syndicate, Limited," is authorised and licensed to carry on business within the Province of British Columbia, and to carry out or effect all or any of the objects hereinafter set forth to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends.

The head office of the Company is situate at No. 11, Copthall Court, in the City of London, England.

The amount of the capital of the Company is thirty thousand pounds, divided into thirty thousand shares of one pound each.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate at the office of the Hudson Bay Company, Water Street, Vancouver, and Charles Frederick Law, whose address is Vancouver, aforesaid, is the attorney for the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:—

(a.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire, freehold and other lands, properties, mines and mineral properties, and also grants, concessions, leases, claims, licences or authorities of and over lands, properties, mines and mineral properties, water and other rights, in British Columbia or elsewhere in the Continent of America, either absolutely, optionally or conditionally, and either solely or jointly with others, and particularly to enter into and carry into effect, with or without modification, an agreement between Amelius Jarvis of the one part and the Company of the other part, in the terms of the draft, a copy whereof has, for the purpose of identification, been subscribed by George Stanley Pott, a solicitor of the Supreme Court:

(b.) To prospect for, open, work, explore, develop and maintain gold, silver, copper, coal, iron and other mines, minerals and other rights, properties and works, and to carry on and conduct the business of raising, crushing, washing, smelting, reducing and amalgamating ores, metals and minerals, and to render the same merchantable and fit for use:

(c.) To cultivate lands and properties, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to develop the resources thereof by draining, clearing, fencing, planting, pasturing, farming, building or improving the same:

(d.) To carry on the business of farmers, graziers, planters, miners, coal and iron masters, quay owners, brickmakers, builders, contractors, merchants, dealers in gold and silver, diamonds and other precious metals and stones, importers and exporters, bankers, ship-owners, wharfingers, carriers, warehousemen, hotel keepers, store keepers, publishers, printers, agents and general merchants, and to buy and sell and deal in every commodity, substance and product:

(e.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(f.) To negotiate loans, and to act as agents for the loan, payment, transmission, collection and investment of money, and for the management of property:

(g.) To employ and pay mining experts, agents and other persons, partnerships, companies or corporations, and to organize, equip and dispatch expeditions for prospecting, exploring, reporting on, surveying, working and developing lands, farms, districts, territories and properties, and whether the same are the property of the Company or otherwise, and to colonize and assist in the colonization of the said lands, farms, districts, territories and properties, and to promote emigration or immigration for that purpose, and to make advances to, and pay for or contribute to the expenses of, and otherwise assist any persons or company prospecting, acquiring, settling or farming, building on, mining or otherwise developing the said lands, farms, districts, territories and properties, or desirous of so doing:

(h.) To establish or promote, or concur in establishing or promoting, any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock or securities of, and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by or any other obligation of any such company:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(j.) To enter into partnership or any joint-purse arrangement, or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure or co-operation with or agency for any company, firm or person carrying on or engaged in, or proposing to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction within the objects of the Company, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To establish and promote, or concur in establishing and promoting, associations, companies, syndicates and undertakings of all kinds, and to secure, by underwriting or otherwise, the subscription of any part of the capital of any such association, company, syndicate or undertaking, and to pay or receive any commission, brokerage or other remuneration in connection therewith:

(m.) To buy, or otherwise acquire, issue, place, sell, or otherwise deal in stocks, shares, bonds, debentures and securities of all kinds, and to give any guarantee or security in relation thereto, or otherwise in connection with any stocks, shares, bonds, debentures or securities:

(n.) To draw, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(o.) To invest money at interest on the security of land of any tenure, building, farming stock, stocks, shares, securities, merchandise and any other property, and generally to lend and advance money to any persons or companies without security, or upon such securities and terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient:

(p.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction or operation, whether mercantile, commercial, financial, manufacturing, trading or otherwise (except life assurance), as an individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry out:

(q.) To borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company's business:

(r.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital, for the time being of the Company: to issue debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable:

(s.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and for such purpose to distinguish and separate capital from profits, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(t.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated, or otherwise duly constituted, if necessary or advisable, according to the law of any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom or any foreign country:

(u.) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(v.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interest:

(w.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(x.) To transfer to or otherwise cause to be vested in any company, or person or persons, all or any of the lands and properties of the Company, to be held in trust for the Company, or on such trusts, for working, developing, or disposing of the same as may be considered expedient:

(y.) To pay the costs, charges and expenses preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment and registration of the Company, and to remunerate by commission, brokerage, or otherwise, any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in relation to the formation and establishment of the Company, or the conduct of its business, or placing, or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing, of any shares in or debentures or other securities of the Company:

(z.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph, or the name of the Company:

(z1.) And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in this clause, when not applied to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and whether existing or hereafter to be formed.

(7.) To manufacture, buy, sell, repair, alter, and deal in all kinds of plant, machinery, rolling stock, hardware, commodities, products, articles, and things necessary or useful for carrying out or on any of the above objects or businesses, or usually dealt in by persons engaged therein:

(8.) To carry on any other businesses (manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above objects, or businesses, or otherwise calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights for the time being:

(9.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(10.) To enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to lend money to guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee or otherwise deal with the same:

(11.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to amalgamate with any such Company:

(12.) To establish and support, or aid in the establishment and support of, associations, institutions, funds, trusts and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibitions, or for any public, general or useful objects:

(13.) To form, promote and establish any companies for any purposes which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company, and generally to carry on and undertake any businesses, transactions or operations commonly carried on by promoters of companies, financiers, concessionaires, contractors for public and other works, capitalists, merchants or trades:

(14.) Generally, to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular to purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive, or limited right to use any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property and rights so acquired:

(15.) To construct, improve, maintain, repair, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, tramways, railways, branches, or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, steamers, and other works, and conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the Company's interests and contribute to subsidise or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof, and to enter into any contracts, to undertake for others, or providing for others to undertake any such operations:

(16.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities or otherwise and in such manner as may from time to time be determined.

(17.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to give any guarantee or indemnity as may seem expedient:

(18.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon any or all of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(19.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing, or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(20.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(21.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any of the property and rights of the Company:

(22.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(23.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(24.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(25.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(26.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(27.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, unless otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this ninth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

CANADA:
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA. }
No. 61.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that "The African British Columbia Corporation, Limited," is authorised and licensed to carry on business within the Province of British Columbia, and to carry out or effect all or any of the objects hereinafter set forth, to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends.

The head office of the Company is situate at 39, Bishopsgate Street, in the City of London, England.

The amount of the capital of the Company is £200,300, divided into 200,000 ordinary shares of £1 each and 300 founders' shares of £1 each.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate in the City of Victoria, and H. Hirschel Cohen, Financial Agent, whose address is 34, Fort Street,

Victoria aforesaid, is the attorney for the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:

(a.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, or otherwise acquire freehold and other lands, properties, mines, and mineral properties, and also grants, concessions, leases, claims, licences, or authorities of and over lands, properties, mines, and mineral properties, water, and other rights, in Africa, British Columbia or elsewhere on the Continent of America, and either absolutely, optionally, or conditionally, and either solely or jointly with others, and particularly to enter into and carry into effect with or without modification, an agreement made between The Transvaal Gold Fields, Limited, of the one part, and The African British Columbia Corporation, Limited, of the other part, in the terms of the draft, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been subscribed by William Holmes, a solicitor of the Supreme Court:

(b.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any concessions, decrees, and contracts for or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying out, equipment, improvement, management, administration, or control of public works and conveniences of all kinds in Africa, British Columbia or elsewhere on the Continent of America, which expression in this Memorandum includes railways, tramways, docks, harbours, piers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments, irrigations, reclamation, improvement, sewage, drainage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephonic, telegraphic and power supply works, and hotels, warehouses, markets, and public buildings, and all other works and conveniences of public utility, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the same:

(c.) To construct, execute, carry out, equip, improve, work, develop, administer, manage, or control public works and conveniences of all kinds:

(d.) To prospect for, open, work, explore, develop and maintain gem, gold, silver, copper, coal, iron, and other mines, mineral and other rights, properties, and works, and to carry on and conduct the business of raising, crushing, washing, smelting, reducing, and amalgamating ores, metals, and minerals, and to render the same merchantable and fit for use:

(e.) To cultivate lands and properties, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to develop the resources thereof by draining, clearing, fencing, planting, pasturing, farming, building, or improving, and by promoting immigration, establishing towns, villages, and settlements:

(f.) To carry on the business of miners, metallurgists, builders, and contractors, engineers, farmers, graziers, shipowners, shipbuilders, wharfingers, carriers, warehousemen, hotel keepers, storekeepers, merchants, importers and exporters, and to buy, sell, and deal in property of all kinds:

(g.) To promote, make, provide, acquire, take on lease or agreement, lease, let, grant running powers over, work, use, and dispose of railways, tramways, waterways, and other roads and ways, and to contribute to the expenses of promoting, making, providing, acquiring, working, and using the same:

(h.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, issue, re-issue, sell, place and deal in shares, stock, bonds, debentures, and securities of all kinds, and to give any guarantee or security for the payment of dividends or interest thereon, or otherwise in relation thereto:

(i.) To form, constitute and promote companies, syndicates, associations, and undertakings of all kinds, and to secure by underwriting or otherwise the subscription of any part of the capital of any such company, syndicate, association or undertaking, and to pay any commission, brokerage, or other remuneration in connection therewith:

(k.) To negotiate loans, to lend moneys, securities and other property, to discount bills and securities, to become sureties and guarantors for any purposes, and generally to carry on business as financiers, bankers and merchants:

(l.) To carry on and undertake any businesses and operations that may be legally carried on or undertaken by a private individual capitalist, except life assurance:

(m.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(n.) To enter into any arrangement with any governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions :

(o.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on, or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in or securities of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue with or without guarantee or otherwise deal with such shares or securities :

(p.) Generally to purchase, to take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, or capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's property or rights for the time being, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, licences, patent, machinery, ships, barges, rolling-stock, plant and stock-in-trade.

(q.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(r.) To establish and promote, or concur in establishing and promoting, associations, companies, syndicates and undertakings of all kinds, and to secure by underwriting or otherwise the subscription of any part of the capital of any such association, company, syndicate, or undertaking, and to pay or receive any commission, brokerage, or other remuneration in connection therewith :

(s.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may, from time to time, be determined :

(t.) To obtain any Provisional Order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interest :

(u.) To raise or borrow, or secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged upon the whole or any part of the property of the Company, both present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company :

(v.) To draw, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities :

(w.) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company, and to remunerate any parties for services rendered or to be rendered in procuring or assisting to procure persons to become members of the Company, or in placing or assisting to place any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business :

(x.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, exchange, surrender, convert, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company :

(y.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and for such purpose to distinguish and separate capital from profits, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made, except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law :

(z.) To employ and pay experts, agents, and other persons, partnerships, companies or corporations, and to organize, equip and despatch expeditions for prospecting, exploring, reporting on, surveying, working and developing lands, farms, districts, territories and properties in Africa, British Columbia, or elsewhere on the continent of America, whether the same are the property of the Company or otherwise, and to colonize and assist in the colonization of the said lands, farms, districts, territories and properties, and to promote emigration or immigration for that purpose, and to make advances to, and pay for or contribute to the expenses of, and otherwise assist any persons or companies prospecting, acquiring, settling on, farming, building on, mining or otherwise developing the said lands, farms, districts, territories and properties, or desirous of so doing :

(z1.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated, or otherwise duly constituted, if necessary or advisable, according to the law of any Colony or Dependency of the United Kingdom or any foreign country :

(z2.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, trustees, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees, or otherwise :

(z3.) To transfer to or otherwise cause to be vested in any company, or person or persons all or any of the property of the Company, to be held in trust for the Company, or on such trusts, for working, developing, or disposing of the same as may be considered expedient :

(z4.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them ; and the intention is that the objects set forth in each of the paragraphs of this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph, or the name of the Company :

(z5.) And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

(4.) To construct, carry out, support, maintain, improve, manage, work, operate, control and superintend railways, tramways, water-works, and any other works of utility, including hotels, exchanges, churches, chapels, parks, schools, museums, places of recreation, racecourses, baths, wash-houses, and any other works and conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of these objects, and to contribute to or otherwise aid or take part in the construction, carrying out, support, maintenance, improvement, management, working, operating, controlling and superintending the same:

(5.) To lend money and other property, to guarantee the performance of contracts and obligations of all kinds, to act as agents in the management, sale and purchase of property, and generally to transact business as capitalists, bankers and financiers:

(6.) To carry on and transact any other businesses, operation, manufacture, commercial or otherwise, which the Company may think directly or indirectly conducive to any of its objects or capable of being conveniently carried on in connection therewith:

(7.) To promote or form, or assist in the promotion or formation of, any company in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, for the purpose of purchasing, acquiring or dealing with any property or interests in property from or by the assistance of the Company, at a profit to the Company or otherwise; and to co-operate with any company (whether promoted by this Company or not) or with any person or persons, in carrying out any objects of the Company under this Memorandum, and to acquire and hold, or sell shares, debentures, or securities of, or interests in any such company as aforesaid, or in any other company, either as purchase, money or otherwise, and to divide any such shares, debentures or securities among the members of the Company in specie, or to dispose thereof in any manner for the benefit of the Company or the members thereof:

(8.) To apply for and obtain concessions, rights or licences for the construction of water-works, gas-works, railways, tramways, wharves or other works, or for the supply of water, gas, or electrical light or power, or for any other things, and to construct, work and carry on any such works and turn the same to account, solely or jointly with any other person or corporation, or to dispose of, sell, lease, or otherwise deal with any such concession, right or licence:

(9.) To undertake and carry out, or to subscribe to, or assist in any public work or private undertaking offering facilities for the purposes of the Company:

(10.) To acquire patent rights and privileges of a like nature in any part of the world, and to turn the same to account in any manner:

(11.) To raise or borrow money for the purposes of the Company on mortgage of its undertaking, property or assets, including the uncalled capital of the Company, or on debentures or otherwise, and to issue mortgages, mortgage or other debentures, bonds, notes or securities, on such terms and conditions as the Directors of the Company may think advisable, and to conduct any financial operation which the Directors may think convenient in connection with any of the objects aforesaid:

(12.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company :

(13.) To appoint and remunerate an agent or agents to represent the Company in any colony or country, and to confer on such agent or agents full powers to represent the Company as its attorney or attorneys for all the purposes of the Companies Acts for the time being in force in any such colony :

(14.) To procure the registration or recognition of the Company in any foreign country or any colony or state :

CERTIFICATE OF THE REGISTRATION OF AN EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANY.

“COMPANIES’ ACT, 1897.”

“British-America Development Company, Limited.”

Registered the 12th day of February, 1898.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that I have this day registered the “British-America Development Company, Limited,” as an Extra-Provincial Company under the “Companies’ Act, 1897,” to carry out or effect all or any of the objects hereinafter set forth, to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends.

The head office of the Company is situate in the City of Jersey City, State of New Jersey.

The amount of the capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of ten dollars each.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate in the Inns of Court building, City of Vancouver, and Henry Tracy Ceperley, President of Ceperley, Loewen & Campbell, Limited, whose address is Vancouver aforesaid, is the attorney for the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been established are :—

(a.) To acquire, by purchase, lease, bond, option, agreement or otherwise, legal or equitable title to or interest in mineral and other lands and properties in the several States and Territories of the United States, in the Province of British Columbia and in the North-West Territories, in the Dominion of Canada, and elsewhere, embracing all the precious metals, either in quartz or placer, also coal, iron and timber lands, mill-sites, water-power, and all other rights and concessions that the Corporation may from time to time deem necessary, and to pay therefor in full-paid stock or bonds of this Corporation when deemed expedient and advisable so to do :

(b.) To develop, improve, sell, convey, lease, bond, mortgage or otherwise dispose of all mineral or other lands, mill-sites, water-power, and other rights or concessions in which it may from time to time acquire a legal or equitable title or interest, upon such terms and under such conditions as may in each particular case be deemed most expedient and advisable :

(c.) To build and construct in the several States and Territories of the United States, in British Columbia and in the North-West Territories, in the Dominion of Canada, and elsewhere, railroads, water, gas or electric works, tunnels, bridges, viaducts, canals, hotels, wharves, piers, and any other works of public use or utility, and to pay for the material used and the labour expended thereon in full-paid stock or bonds of this Corporation, when deemed expedient and advisable so to do :

(d.) To examine and guarantee the title to lands in the States and Territories of the United States, and in the Dominion of Canada :

(e.) To locate and in other ways to acquire legal or equitable title to or interest in mining claims, and to hold and operate, or to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the same :

(f.) To purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise acquire title to or interest in, and dispose of the shares of the capital stock of, or any bonds, securities or other evidence of indebtedness created by, any other corporation or corporations of any of the States and Territories of the United States, and of any foreign country, whether already incorporated or hereafter to be incorporated, and to enjoy all the rights and privileges of ownership thereof :

(g.) To manufacture, purchase or otherwise acquire, to hold, own, mortgage, pledge, sell, assign and transfer, or otherwise dispose of, to invest, trade, deal in and deal with goods, wares and merchandise and property of every class and description :

(h.) To acquire the good will, rights and property of any kind, and to undertake the whole or any part of the assets and liabilities of any person, firm, association or corporation, and to pay for the same in full-paid stock or bonds of this Corporation when deemed expedient and advisable so to do :

(i.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own, use, operate, and to sell, assign, or to otherwise dispose of, to grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account any and all inventions, improvements and processes used in connection with or secured under Letters Patent of the United States, Canada, or elsewhere, or otherwise, and with a view to the working and development of the same, to carry on any business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which the Corporation may think calculated directly or indirectly to effectuate these objects :

(j.) To enter into, make, perform and carry out contracts of every kind with any person, firm, association or corporation :

(k.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments :

(l.) To procure the Corporation to be registered or recognized, to have one or more offices, to carry on all or any of its operations and business, and unlimitedly and without restriction to hold, purchase, mortgage, and convey real and personal property in any State or Territory of the United States, and in any foreign country or place :

(m.) To do all and everything necessary, suitable or proper, for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or attainment of any of the objects, hereinbefore enumerated, which shall at any time appear for the benefit of the Corporation, and in general to carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Corporation capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable the general business of the Corporation and any of its property rights.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:

(a.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire lands, estates, mines, mineral grants, gravel deposits, mining rights and privileges, ores, minerals, and other properties, real or personal, together with any right of water outlets, and surface rights appertaining thereto, in the Klondyke District of British Columbia or elsewhere in any part of the world:

(b.) To search for, prospect, examine and explore mines and ground supposed to contain minerals or precious stones, and to search for and obtain information in regard to mines and mining districts:

(c.) To work, explore, develop and maintain the lands, estates, mines, minerals, and other properties that may at any time be acquired by the Company, and to purchase and erect all necessary buildings, stores, and machinery, for the purpose of exploring, developing, and working the same, and to dress and prepare for market, produce, ores, metals, minerals or precious stones, and to sell, traffic, and deal in the same:

(d.) To cultivate, improve, and develop the resources of any lands, estates, and properties that may be acquired by the Company, and for such purposes to erect dwelling-houses and other buildings, to purchase horses, mules, cattle, stock, and implements, as may seem necessary for cultivating, farming, and pasturing the lands, and from time to time to sell all or any part of the live or dead stock, and the produce of the said lands:

(e.) To carry on the business of smelters, and reducers of ores and minerals, whether obtained from the Company's or from any other property or mines, and to purchase, treat, crush, reduce, smelt, and amalgamate any ores, minerals, and metals and other substances, and for the purpose thereof to purchase or erect buildings, works, furnaces, machinery, and other appliances, so as to render the minerals and metals more commercially valuable, and to sell the same:

(f.) To acquire, construct, or aid in and subscribe towards the construction, maintenance, and improvement of such ways, roads, tramways, railways, bridges, reservoirs, wells, water-courses, aqueducts, wharves, furnaces, saw-mills, hydraulic works, electrical works, factories, warehouses, ships, and other works as may be directly or indirectly required for the purpose of the Company, and to purchase, take on lease, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire such lands, roads, tramways, ways, water-rights, easements, privileges, rolling stock, and other property, as may be necessary:

(g.) To enter into any arrangements with any governments, or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, which may seem conducive to this Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, acts, privileges, and concessions:

(h.) To purchase, hire or acquire any patents or inventions, and to sell or grant licences for the use of such patents or inventions, and to develop or manufacture such patents or inventions:

(i.) To purchase, subscribe for, and hold shares in any other company, also to promote and establish any company for the purpose of acquiring the whole or any part of the property or assets of this or any other undertaking; also to purchase from any other company, partnership, or person, their or his business, good-will or interest in any trade, property and assets, or to co-operate, unite or amalgamate with any company, partnership or person:

(j.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may, from time to time, be determined:

(k.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and establishment of the Company, and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for and placing or guaranteeing the shares, or any of the shares, in such Company:

(l.) To promote, or reconstruct, or assist in the promotion or reconstruction of any other company or companies having for its object the acquisition and working of any mining or commercial undertaking or venture, or for other objects or purposes in any part of the world, and to assist any such company or companies by finding or contributing towards the preliminary or other expenses, providing or guaranteeing the whole or part of the capital thereof, and by taking shares or debentures therein, and by paying or contributing towards the payment of any brokerage, brokers' fees, commissions or remuneration to any person or company for guaranteeing, or placing, or procuring, or assisting in procuring capital, either in cash, shares, debentures or debenture stock :

(m.) To make, accept, indorse, execute, negotiate, purchase, or discount bills of exchange, promissory notes, and all other negotiable instruments :

(n.) To receive money on deposit at interest or otherwise, and to carry on any business, patent, or undertaking acquired by the Company, or in which it is interested, or calculated directly or indirectly to be a source of profit to the Company :

(o.) To subscribe for and take, acquire and hold, dispose of and deal, either as principals or agents, in shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, debentures, and any other security in any other company :

(p.) To advance money on security of stocks and shares, and upon any other security the directors may deem sufficient :

(q.) To buy and sell on the Company's own account, or upon commission, all kinds of property, real and personal, movable or immovable :

(r.) To mortgage or charge, either absolutely or conditionally, all or any part of the real and personal property or other assets of the Company, also to borrow any sum or sums of money by bond, bill of exchange, promissory note, debentures, debenture stock charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, or otherwise as may be deemed advisable or beneficial to the Company :

(s.) To sell, demise, or dispose of the Company's properties, rights or other assets, or any part thereof, or any rights or easements therein or thereover, and any other property, real or personal, with the machinery, plant and buildings thereon, for cash or shares, or debentures in any company, or on terms of sharing in profits, or on a royalty, or on such terms as the Board may determine. To distribute any property of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise :

(t.) To construct and maintain any houses, buildings, cottages, hotels, canteens, stores or establishments for the use and benefit of the workmen and others, or on its works or property or otherwise, also to purchase and sell articles of consumption and other commodities :

(u.) To transact, do and perform all such other acts, matters and things which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, incidental or otherwise, conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, and also such additional or extended objects as the Company may, from time to time, by special resolution, determine and resolve.

ALL applications for Private Bills require a notice over the signature and address of the applicants or their solicitors, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, published by advertisement as follows, viz.:—In the Canada Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, District, Union of Counties or Territory, affected by the proposed measure, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest County, District or Territory in which a newspaper is published. In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba the notice must be published in the like manner in the English and French languages. All notices shall be continued for a period of at least two months during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition. Marked copies of (all) the newspapers, endorsed "Application for Private Bills," containing the first and last insertion of such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of each House.

In the case of an application for the erection of a toll bridge the notice shall also state the proposed rates of toll, the nature of the structure, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers, etc.

A copy of the Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House in which the Bill is to originate at least eight days before the meeting of Parliament, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same; and a further sum of two hundred dollars and the cost of printing the Act with the Statutes will be levied immediately after the second reading of the Bill.

Petitions for Private Bills must be presented to the Senate and House of Commons within the first three weeks of the session.

Private Bills are to be presented to the Senate or House of Commons within the first four weeks of the session.

EDOUARD J. LANGEVIN,

Clerk of the Senate.

JNO. GEO. BOURINOT,

Clerk of the House of Commons.

SPECIAL RULE OF THE SENATE.

49. (c.) When a Bill is to operate in more than one Province, Territory or District the notice shall be published in The Canada Gazette and in a leading newspaper in each Province, Territory or District in which the Bill is to operate.

EDOUARD J. LANGEVIN,

Clerk of the Senate.

EXTRACTS FROM SPECIAL RULES OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Private Bills shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills.

Private Bills in amendment of Acts, or for Acts incorporating railway companies, shall be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill adopted by the House, copies of which may be obtained from the Clerk.

Provisions varying the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets, and when revised by the proper officers, shall be so printed.

Sections of existing Acts proposed to be amended shall be reprinted in full, with the amendments inserted in their proper places and between brackets.

Private Bills which are not drawn in accordance with these rules shall be returned to the promoters to be re-cast before being revised and printed.

Exceptional provisions shall be clearly specified in the notice of application.

A certified map or plan showing the location of any proposed line of railway, also the lines existing or authorised work of a similar character within, or in any way affecting, the district which the proposed work is intended to serve, and an exhibit showing the amount of capital proposed to be raised for the undertaking, and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same shall be filed with the Railway Committee at least one week before the consideration of the Bill.

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Resolved, that the Clerk of the House do have a copy of the new Rule 49 sent to those persons giving notice in The Canada Gazette of their intention to apply to Parliament for the passing of a Private Bill, together with a notification that the said rule will be strictly adhered to for the future:—

49. Petitions for Private Bills shall only be received by the House within the first three weeks of the session, and Private Bills may only be presented to the House within the first four weeks of the session, and it shall be the duty of any Committee to which any Private Bill may be referred to consider and report the same to the House with all convenient speed.

2. That it be an instruction to all Committees on Private Bills, in the event of promoters not being ready to proceed with their measures when the same have been twice called on two separate occasions for consideration by the Committee, that such measure shall be reported back to the House forthwith, together with a statement of the facts and with the recommendation that such Bills be withdrawn.

JNO. GEO. BOURINOT,

no18 Clerk of the House of Commons.

PRIVATE BILLS

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10½ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. One hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

Dated 16th November, 1897.

MATTER OF THE CHANNE MINING COM-PANY, LIMITED LIABILITY.

WE, GEORGE WILLIAM WILLIS, the President and Managing Director of the Channe Mining Company, and Joseph Sheasgreen, the acting Secretary of the Channe Mining Company, Limited Liability, at the meeting hereinafter mentioned, both of the City of Vancouver, British Columbia, make oath and say:—

1. That I, the said George W. Willis, am the President and Managing Director of the said Mining Company, and was the Chairman of the meeting called for the purpose of diminishing the capital stock of the Channe Mining Company, Limited Liability, and I, the said Joseph Sheasgreen, was the acting Secretary of the said meeting as aforesaid.

2. That a meeting of the stockholders of the Channe Mining Company, Limited Liability, was duly called for the purpose of passing a resolution to diminish the capital stock of the Channe Mining Company, Limited Liability, from one million dollars to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars by a notice signed by a majority of the trustees, and published once a week for four weeks in the "Daily Advertiser" newspaper, published in the City of Vancouver, which notice specified the object of the meeting and the time and place where it was to be held for the purpose.

A resolution was moved at such meeting by Mr. J. H. Shirley, and seconded by Mr. Joseph Sheasgreen, and passed by a vote of two-thirds of all the shares of stock, which resolution is in the words and figures following:—

"Moved by J. H. Shirley, seconded by Joseph Sheasgreen, that whereas it is desirous of diminishing the capital of the Channe Mining Company, Limited

Liability, from one million dollars to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars :

"And whereas this meeting has been duly called for such purpose :

"Therefore it is resolved that the capital stock of this Company be diminished from one million dollars to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and that such diminution be effected by changing the face value of the shares from one dollar to twenty-five cents. Carried."

4. That the amount of capital stock is fully paid up.

5. That there are no debts and liabilities of the said Company, excepting current accounts, which amounts to less than the sum of $200.

6. That it is desirous of reducing the capital stock of the Channe Mining Company, Limited Liability, from one million dollars to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars by changing the face value of the shares from one dollar to twenty-five cents.

Severally sworn before me by

SANDON CITY BY-LAWS.

BY-LAW NO. 2.

WHEREAS it is desirable to pass a general by-law to prevent animals from running at large, and to establish a city pound:

Be it therefore enacted by the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Sandon as follows:—

1. There shall be established in the City of Sandon a city pound, and it shall be located at such place and on such premises as the Council shall from time to time appoint, and it shall be designated as the "city pound," and the keeper thereof shall be appointed by the Council, and act under the instructions of the Chief of Police.

2. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to suffer or allow his, her or their horses, mules, oxen, bulls, cattle, goats, sheep, swine or poultry, or any one or more of them, to run at large within the limits of the Corporation of the City of Sandon at any time.

3. It shall be lawful for the appointed pound-keeper to impound any and all animals mentioned in second section hereof if found running at large within the limits of the City of Sandon, and he is hereby required to impound such animals and detain the same until the owner or owners thereof shall have paid, over and above any claim for damages for trespass, and the charges over and above the penalty alone where no trespass has been committed, the sums following, viz.:

For every horse, mule, head of cattle, pig, sheep or goat, the sum of one dollar, and for each fowl the sum of twenty-five cents, which sum shall go to the pound-keeper for his fee for impounding same.

4. Whenever any animal shall have been impounded as aforesaid it shall be the duty of the pound-keeper, daily, to furnish such animals good and sufficient food, water and shelter, during the whole time such animals are impounded, and for so doing he shall be entitled to demand and receive the following allowances, over and above his fees as pound-keeper, as hereinbefore provided, viz.:

For every horse or mule, per day, $1.00.

For every other animal, per day, 50 cents.

For every fowl, per day, 10 cents.

And such allowance as aforesaid may be recovered with costs by summary proceedings before the Police Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over the offences against the by-laws of the Corporation of the City of Sandon, in like manner as fines, penalties and forfeitures for breach of any by-laws of the said Corporation of the City of Sandon.

5. It shall be the duty of the pound-keeper immediately to inform the owner of any animal impounded of the fact, or if the owner be not known, to advertise the same in one of the local newspapers, and to cause a notice thereof, in writing, to be affixed to the pound-gate and the post office, and in such notices to give as nearly as possible the marks, colour and probable age of the animal, and if, after the expiration of six days from the date of such advertisement, no owner be found, the pound-keeper shall advertise the sale of such animal by public auction, by posting notices, giving at least three days' notice of the sale, and shall accordingly sell for the best price that can be obtained for the same, unless the owner of such animal, or some other person on his or her behalf, shall, prior to such sale, release the said animal by paying the fees and charges of the pound-keeper, and the penalty and damages, if any; and the said pound-keeper, after deducting his own charges, shall pay the damages, if any, to the person entitled thereto, and the penalty to the City Clerk of the Corporation of the City of Sandon, and if not claimed within three months after being received by the City Clerk, the same shall become part of the general revenue of the Corporation of the City of Sandon. If the owner or owners of any animal taken while doing damage, or any person on his or her behalf, shall appear and dispute the amount of damages claimed, it shall and may be lawful for the pound-keeper to apply to the Mayor or any one of the Aldermen of the said Corporation of the City of Sandon, who is hereby authorised and required forthwith to summons three disinterested inhabitants of the said Corporation of the City of Sandon, and such three persons, or any two of them, shall, within twenty-four hours after notice of their appointment as aforesaid, view the ground and premises upon which the animal was found doing damage, and shall appraise the damages committed, and the determination or award of a majority of them shall be conclusive as to such damage, and they shall, within twenty-four hours after having made the view, give, in writing, to the pound-keeper a statement of the amount of damages so assessed by them, and of their lawful fees and charges.

6. The owner of any animal mentioned in the second section of this by-law, and taken running at large within the limits of the said Corporation of the City of Sandon, shall pay the following penalties over and above the charges of the pound-keeper, and the damage claimed or assessed against such owner as hereinbefore provided, that is to say:—

For every stallion, five dollars ($5.00);

For every other horse, mare, gelding, colt, filly, or mule, two dollars ($2.00);

For every bull, five dollars ($5.00);

For every cow or other head of cattle one dollar ($1.00);

For every boar pig, two dollars ($2.00);

For every other pig, sheep, or goat, fifty (50) cents;

For every fowl, twenty-five (25) cents;

To be recovered by summary proceedings before the Police Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the said Corporation of the City of Sandon, either upon the confession of the party complained of, or upon proof upon oath of one or more credible witnesses.

7. It shall be lawful for anyone to drive any animal or poultry mentioned in the second and fourth sections of this by-law, if found running at large within the limits of the Corporation of the City of Sandon, to the city pound, and such person shall be entitled to be paid the fees following: For every horse, mule, cow, or other head of cattle, pig, sheep or goat, seventy-five (75) cents, and for every fowl, twenty-five (25) cents; and it shall be the duty of the pound-keeper to impound the same until the pound-keeper's fees and charges, as allowed by this by-law, and the fees in this section mentioned, have been paid, and the pound-keeper shall proceed in the same manner with such distress and pay over the penalty in the same manner as directed by the fifth section of this by-law.

8. The pound-keeper shall be allowed, over and above the fees hereinbefore mentioned, the following fees, that is to say:

For posting up the required notices, as provided by the fifth section of this by-law, fifty (50) cents.

For attending for the summons and serving the same on the appraisers of damages, seventy-five (75) cents.

And for every sale of distress, fifty (50) cents, and no more.

9. If any person, without the authority of law, and without first paying the penalty, damages, and costs, takes such animal or animals, after being impounded, out of the possession of the pound-keeper, without his consent, such person shall be liable, upon conviction before the Police Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the Corporation of the City of Sandon, to be punished therefor by fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding two months, in addition to the penalties provided for an infringement of the other provisions of this by-law.

10. It shall be the duty of the City Clerk of the Corporation of the City of Sandon to furnish each pound-keeper with a book, in which he shall enter the number and description of every animal impounded by him, with the name of the person who took or sent the same to be impounded; the day and hour on which he received the same; the day and hour on which same were redeemed, and the amount of damages or penalties and fees paid by the party redeeming the same, or the proceeds of the sale (if any); and each pound-keeper shall, on or before the fifth day of each month in the year, make a return to the said City Clerk, in writing, of the number and description of all distresses received by him during the month preceding such return, with the names of the persons taking the same to the pound, the amount received and when the same was redeemed, and any other information he may deem necessary, which return shall be verified on oath.

11. Every pound-keeper shall, when making his return, pay to the City Clerk of the said Corporation of the City of Sandon all moneys received by him during the month, which are directed to be paid to the said City Clerk by this by-law, and shall at all times produce his books for the inspection of the said City Clerk, or of any member of the said Council, when so required.

12. It shall be the duty of the pound-keeper and every member of the Police Force to ascertain the name or names of any owner or owners of any animals mentioned in section three hereof, found running at large within the city limits, and to lay information before the Police Magistrate, or any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the Corporation of the City of Sandon, against any such owner or owners for allowing such animal or animals to run at large within the city limits, and it shall be the duty of the Police Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the Corporation of the City of Sandon, to impose a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars and costs for each offence, which fine shall be paid to the City Clerk for city purposes.

BY-LAW NO. 3.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient to impose a tax upon the owners, possessors or harbourers of dogs, and to provide for the impounding, selling and killing of dogs on the non-payment of such tax by the owners, possessors or harbourers thereof:

The Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Sandon enacts as follows:—

1. Every owner, possessor or harbourer of a dog in the City of Sandon, shall annually pay unto the Chief of Police, or person acting as such for the time being, of the said City of Sandon, for the general purpose of the said City, a tax or fee of two dollars for each dog owned by him, or in his possession, or suffered to remain about his house or premises, and upon payment of such tax shall be entitled to receive from the said

Chief of Police a metallic plate having raised or stamped thereon the words "S. T. P." (Sandon tax paid), and the figures indicating the year for which the said tax has been paid, together with a number corresponding with the number under which the said dog is registered in the book kept for that purpose by the said Chief of Police.

2. It shall be the duty of the Chief of Police, or person acting as such for the time being, and the pound-keeper of the said City of Sandon, to impound any dog found running at large in the said City of Sandon, which is owned, or in the possession of, or suffered to remain about the premises of, any resident of the said City, and for which such owner, possessor or harbourer has not paid the tax or fee required of him by clause one of this by-law, in the public pound of the said City, and of the said pound-keeper to keep any such dog so impounded for seventy-two hours, and if the owner within the said seventy-two hours produces to the said pound-keeper the receipt of the said Chief of Police, or person acting as such for the time being, showing that tax payable on account of the said dog has been paid, or a metallic plate in accordance with clause one of this by-law, and shall also pay to the said pound-keeper the sum of one dollar for his fee for so impounding said dog, and twenty-five cents per day for the expense for keeping and feeding of the said dog, then the said dog shall be delivered to the said owner or claimant; otherwise the said dog, at the expiration of the said seventy-two hours, shall be sold or destroyed by the said Chief of Police or pound-keeper.

3. The owner of any bitch in heat who shall suffer or permit the same to run at large while in that condition shall be subject to the penalties of this by-law.

4. The said Chief of Police, or person acting as such for the time being, shall, in the months of January and July in each year, post up notices in at least six public places in the City, warning persons of the provisions of this by-law.

5. It shall be the duty of the said Chief of Police, or person acting as such for the time being, once in every month to make a return or report in writing to the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Sandon, showing the names of all persons who have during the preceding month paid the tax imposed by this by-law, together with the date of such payment, and the amount received from each such person, and also once in every month to pay over to the City Clerk all moneys received by him during the preceding month, under the provisions of this by-law.

6. Any person refusing or neglecting to pay such tax, or guilty of any infraction of any of the provisions of this by-law shall, upon conviction before the Police Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the City of Sandon, on oath or affirmation of any creditable witness forfeit and pay over at the discretion of the Police Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the City of Sandon, convicting, a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each offence, exclusive of costs, and in default of payment thereof forthwith, it shall and may be lawful for the Police Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the City of Sandon, convicting as aforesaid, to issue a warrant under his hand and seal to levy the said penalty and costs, or penalty or costs only, by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, and in case of insufficient distress to satisfy the said penalty and costs or penalty or costs only, it shall and may be lawful for the Police Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the City of Sandon, convicting as aforesaid, to commit the offender to any lock-up in the said City of Sandon, or to the common gaol for any period not exceeding one calendar month, unless the penalty and costs, or penalty or costs, be sooner paid.

7. This by-law may be cited for all purposes as the "Dog Tax By-law, No. 3, 1898."

Read first time February 7th, 1898.

Read second and third time February 10th, 1898.

BY-LAW No. 4.

WHEREAS it is necessary to pass a general by-law to limit dangers from fires, and to provide methods of dealing with them when they arise:

Be it enacted by the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Sandon as follows:—

1. On and after the promulgation of this by-law no fire shall be lighted nor permitted to be used in any building whatsoever, within the corporate limit of the City of Sandon, without having a properly constructed brick or stone chimney therein, commencing at least thirty inches below the ceiling of the lowest story, and continuing up through the roof for at least thirty inches.

2. Every chimney or flue built or constructed within the city, shall be built of brick, stone, or other incombustible material, and the walls thereof shall be not less than four inches in thickness exclusive of plastering, and all brick and stone to be laid with full joint, and all timber upon which a chimney or flue rests shall be at least eight inches below the base of said flue or chimney, and every such chimney or flue shall be so constructed as to admit of its being cleaned.

3. No stovepipe shall pass through any partition, ceiling or floor, except through metal thimbles, surrounded with not less than four inches of brick or cement, nor within a less distance than eighteen inches from ceiling or side walls; provided that no pipe shall pass through more than one partition or ceiling before entering a chimney. All pipes shall be well jointed and secured by iron or copper wire, to prevent them becoming detached or jarred out of place, and all stovepipe holes, when not in actual use, shall be closed with a stopper of metal or other incombustible material.

4. Every stove shall stand on an iron or zinc plate at least two feet by three feet for ordinary room stoves, and proportionately large plates for larger stoves and kitchen stoves.

5. Every building of two stories or more in height shall have a strong fixed ladder attached securely to the side or end thereof, and extending to the peak of the roof on the outside of the building, for easy access to the roof in case of fire, and such ladder shall be kept in perfect repair for firemen's use at all times, at the expense of the owner, occupant or person in charge of the building, and in the case of the non-compliance with the provisions of this by-law by the owner, or occupant or person in charge of any building, the Municipal Council shall cause the said ladders to be erected or repaired at the expense of the owner, occupant or person in charge of the building.

6. No person shall keep or have in any house within the City of Sandon, at any one time, more than seventy-five pounds of gunpowder or dynamite, unless the same is kept in a magazine storeroom or place to be approved of by the fire and chimney inspector, and all gunpowder or dynamite under the said quantity which is kept on hand by any person within the city, shall be deposited in a fire-proof box or safe, and no person shall take a lighted candle, lantern, lamp, light or fire of any description near the same.

7. No person shall use a lighted candle or lamp in any stable, building or place within the city where hay, straw, hemp, cotton, flax, rushes, gunpowder or other combustible materials shall be stored or kept or be, or in a carpenter's or cabinet-maker's shop, unless the same is well secured in a lantern.

8. The chief of the volunteer fire brigade, or person acting as such for the time being, is hereby appointed fire and chimney inspector, and it shall be his duty to enforce the requirements of the preceding sections of this by-law, and he is hereby invested with power to enter all buildings and enclosures within the corporate limits of the City of Sandon, between the hours of sunrise and sunset, in order to ascertain if these requirements are being observed.

9. Any person refusing to admit the fire and chimney inspector for the purpose of inspecting any premises, or refusing to comply with the requirements of the foregoing sections, upon notice, shall be subject to the penalties of this by-law.

10. Any person or persons guilty of an infraction of any of the foregoing provisions of this by-law shall, upon conviction before the Police Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the City of Sandon, be punished by fine of not less than five dollars and costs, nor more than one hundred dollars and costs, which fine and costs, or either of them, shall be recoverable on judgment being given and execution granted, by distress, and if no sufficient distress, then by imprisonment at hard labour for not less than two days nor more than forty days.

VOLUNTEER FIRE BRIGADE.

11. There is hereby authorised and recognized the Sandon Volunteer Fire Brigade, whose chief executive officer shall be elected by the members from among their own number, but such election must be approved by the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Sandon before such officer may act in any official capacity.

12. The Corporation of the City of Sandon shall from time to time provide necessary apparatus for the suppression of fires, which apparatus shall be placed at the service of the Sandon Volunteer Fire Brigade, and be under the special charge of the Chief of the Brigade, who shall be responsible to the Municipal Council for its readiness for instant use for the extinguishing of fires.

13. It shall be the duty of the Chief and every member of the Volunteer Fire Brigade to respond forthwith to every fire alarm, and proceed with all possible haste to the scene thereof. During the progress of any fire the brigade shall be under the sole direction of the Chief, who shall be responsible to the Municipal Council for the maintenance of proper discipline.

14. The Volunteer Fire Brigade may, subject to the approval of the Municipal Council, make by-laws for the governing of the attendance of its members at fires, for the maintenance of proper discipline while in attendance thereat, for the election of such officers as are provided for under this by-law, and for the election of such other officers as the brigade may deem necessary or advisable.

15. The brigade shall, subject to the approval of the Municipal Council, elect three Deputy Chiefs from their own number, who, in case of the absence or disability of the Chief, or other senior officer, shall assume the duties and responsibilities of Chief in order of their seniority.

16. No apparatus, or parts thereof, provided for the use of the Volunteer Fire Brigade, shall be used for private purposes of any kind whatsoever.

17. All persons at or near any fire shall assist the brigade under the direction of the Chief, but not otherwise, and they shall, when ordered to do so by the Chief, assist in keeping space clear and preserving order.

18. The Chief of the Volunteer Fire Brigade, or any other officer in charge of the brigade, at any fire in the Corporation of the City of Sandon, with the sanction of the Mayor of the said corporation, or in case of his absence, with the sanction of any two members of the Municipal Council, is hereby empowered to cause to be pulled down, blown up, or otherwise demolished adjacent buildings or other structures when deemed necessary to prevent the spreading of fires, but not otherwise.

19. The Chief of Police, or person acting as such for the time being, and such special constables as may be appointed for the purpose, shall preserve order at any fire in the Corporation of the City of Sandon, and shall promptly carry out all directions of the Chief of the Volunteer Fire Brigade, or other person in charge of the brigade, intended to facilitate the work of extinguishing the fire. They shall also have power to prevent all interference with the work of the brigade, and to arrest and detain any person or persons so interrupting it or preventing it from properly discharging its work of extinguishing the fire.

20. It shall be the duty of the Chief of the Fire Brigade to make out and deliver to the Municipal Council a list in writing of all the fire apparatus, goods and chattels in use and not in use by the brigade, every three months. He shall also report monthly to the Municipal Council upon the condition of the fire apparatus under his care, and the need of anything to replace lost, worn out, or defective plant or material.

21. It shall be the duty of the Chief of the Fire Brigade to make out and present to the Municipal Council a report of each fire and alarm of fire which may occur, and also the value of the buildings and contents which may be destroyed or injured, amount of insurance, estimated losses, and the efficiency of the brigade in handling the fire.

22. Any person or persons obstructing the fire brigade in the performance of its duty, or acting contrary to the orders of the Chief or other person in charge of the brigade, or illegally using any of the apparatus provided for the use of the brigade, shall be liable, upon conviction before the Police Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the Corporation of the City of Sandon, be punishable by a fine of not less than five dollars and costs, nor more than one hundred dollars and costs, which fine and costs, or either of them, shall be recoverable on judgment being given and execution granted by distress, and if no sufficient distress be found, then by imprisonment at hard labour for not less than two days nor more than forty days.

BY-LAW NO. 5.

WHEREAS the Corporation of the City of Sandon is empowered to borrow such sum of money, not exceeding an amount equal to the total amount of taxes upon land or real property as shown by the revised assessment roll of the Municipality for the preceding year, and bearing such rate of interest as may be requisite, to meet the current legal expenditure of the Corporation which becomes payable out of the annual revenue before the revenue for the year becomes payable by the taxpayers:

And whereas to meet the current legal expenditure of the Corporation of the City of Sandon for the year 1898, which becomes payable out of the annual revenue for the said year before such revenue becomes payable by the taxpayers, it is requisite for the said Corporation to borrow the sum of three thousand dollars:

Therefore be it enacted by the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Sandon as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the Corporation of the City of Sandon to borrow on the credit of the Corporation from any person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or corporations who may be willing to advance the same, the sum of three thousand dollars, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding seven per centum per annum, to meet the current legal expenditure of the said Corporation which becomes payable out of the annual revenue for the year 1898, before such revenue becomes payable by the taxpayers.

2. The money so borrowed, together with the interest thereon, shall be a liability payable out of the municipal revenue for the current year, and shall be payable and repaid on or before the 31st day of December, 1898.

3. The obligation to be given as an acknowledgment of the liability hereby authorised shall be in the form of a promissory note signed by the Mayor and Finance Committee and the City Clerk, and shall bear the corporate seal of the said Corporation.

4. This by law may be cited for all purposes as the "Temporary Loan By-law, No. 5, 1898."

BY-LAW No. 6.

A By-Law to regulate the issuance of Licences for the several Trades, Occupations, Professions and Businesses therein set forth.

THE Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Sandon enacts as follows:—

1. From and after the passing of this by-law every person using or following any of the trades, occupations, professions or businesses herein mentioned within the limits of the City of Sandon shall take out a periodical licence therefor, for such period as is herein set forth, paying for such licence such periodical sum as is herein specified, which said sum shall be paid in advance to the person authorised to collect such sums for the municipality.

(1.) Every person vending spirituous or fermented liquors by retail, for each house or place where such vending is carried on, two hundred and fifty dollars for every six months.

(2.) Every person not having a retail licence under sub-sections (1) or (5) of this clause, who sells, barter or traffics by retail in fermented, spirituous or other liquors in a shop, store, or place other than an inn, saloon, ale or beer house, or other house of public entertainment, in quantities of not less than a reputed pint bottle at any one time to anyone person, where the liquor is at the time of sale taken off the premises in the original package or bottle, for each house or place where such vending is carried on, two hundred dollars for every six months.

(3.) Every person not having a retail licence as above, and vending spirituous or fermented liquors by wholesale, that is to say, in quantities of not less than two gallons, for each house or place fifty dollars for every six months.

(4.) Any violation or breach of any of the provisions of this by-law shall subject the offender or offenders, upon summary conviction before the Police Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction in the City of Sandon, to a penalty not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, together with the amount which should have been paid for such licence, which said amount and penalty shall be held to be one penalty; and every such penalty may be recoverable by distress of the goods and chattels of the person or persons so offending; and in case such goods and chattels shall prove insufficient to satisfy such penalty and costs, then by imprisonment of such person or persons for any time not exceeding three calendar months.

(5.) Every person vending wines, spirits, beer or other fermented or intoxicating liquor by retail in any building in use as an hotel, and containing not less than thirty rooms actually furnished and used for hotel purposes, one hundred and fifty dollars for every six months.

(6.) Every person keeping a saloon or building where a billiard table is used for hire or profit, five dollars for each table for every six months.

(7.) Every person keeping a bowling alley or rifle gallery, five dollars for every six months.

(8.) Every person selling opium, except chemists and druggists using the same in preparation of prescriptions of medical practitioners, one hundred dollars for every six months.

(9.) Every person carrying on the business of a wholesale, or of a wholesale and retail merchant or trader, ten dollars for every six months.

(10.) Every retail trader, five dollars for every six months; such two last-mentioned licences to enable the person paying the same to change his place of business at pleasure, but not to carry on business at two places at the same time under one licence.

(11.) Every hawker or peddler, fifty dollars for every six months.

(12.) Every person who, either on his own behalf or as agent for another or others, sells, solicits, or takes orders for the sale by retail of goods, wares, or merchandise, to be supplied or furnished by any person or firm doing business outside of the municipality, fifty dollars for every six months.

(13.) Every person who keeps or carries on a public wash-house or laundry, five dollars for every six months.

(14.) Every person carrying on the business of a pawnbroker, one hundred and twenty-five dollars for every six months.

(15.) Every owner or owners of cabs, buggies, waggon, carts, carriages, omnibuses, and other vehicles kept for hire, two dollars and fifty cents per half-year for every such vehicle: Provided that no person or company holding four licences under this sub-section shall be liable at the same time to take out or pay for a licence in respect of the livery stable at which the vehicle mentioned in such licence is kept.

(16.) Every livery stable keeper, ten dollars for every six months.

(17.) Every person owning a pack-animal, dray, waggon or omnibus, used in transporting goods and passengers, or either, for profit or hire, two dollars and fifty cents for every six months.

(18.) Every person carrying on, on his own account, the business of a banker, fifty dollars for every six months.

(19.) Every person practising as a barrister or solicitor, twelve dollars and fifty cents for every six months.

(20.) Every person, other than a barrister or solicitor, who has taken out a licence to practise as such, following the occupation of a conveyancer, land agent, insurance agent, or mining broker, twelve dollars and fifty cents for every six months:

(21.) Every auctioneer, not being a government officer selling by auction government property, or sheriff or sheriff's officer or bailiff selling lands, goods, or chattels taken in execution or for the satisfaction of rent or taxes, in addition to any other licence before mentioned, fifty dollars for every six months:

(22.) Every person who exhibits a public circus or menagerie, two hundred dollars for each day of such exhibition:

(23.) From the proprietor, lessee, or manager of any theatre, concert hall, or other place of amusement, entertainment, or exhibition, according to the seating capacity of such theatre, concert hall, or other place of amusement, entertainment, or exhibition, allowing twenty-two inches for each seat, the amounts following:—

(a.) For every such space seating nine hundred and seventy-five persons or more, an amount not exceeding three hundred dollars for one year, or not exceeding one hundred dollars for three months, or not exceeding fifty dollars for one month, or not exceeding five dollars for one day;

(b.) For every such place seating less than nine hundred and seventy-five persons, an amount not exceeding two hundred dollars for one year, or not exceeding seventy-five dollars for three months, or not exceeding forty dollars for one month, or not exceeding five dollars for one day. All licences issued under the provisions of this sub-section shall be known and designated as "theatre licences," but no licence shall be required in respect of any exhibition, concert, or other entertainment, for the benefit of any church, school, or hospital, or any charitable entertainments by any amateur dramatic association or literary society.

(24.) From every person following, within the municipality, any trade, occupation or calling not hereinbefore enumerated, or who enters into, or carries on, any contract or agreement to perform any work or furnish any material, five dollars for every six months: Provided, always, that no person employed as a journeyman, or for wages only, and not employing any other person or persons, or not having a regular place of business, shall be subject to the provisions of this sub-section.

(25.) Every telephone company and electric light company, fifty dollars for every six months.

(26.) For a licence to exhibit wax-works, circus riding, rope walking, dancing, tumbling, or other acrobatic or gymnastic performance, wild animals or hippodrome, sparring, boxing, sleight of hand, legerdemain, jugglery, or other like tricks, pictures, paintings, statuary, works of art, natural or artificial curiosities, tableaux, wonderful animals or freaks of nature, or any other exhibition kept for hire or profit when the same is exhibited elsewhere than in a theatre, music or concert hall, or other building or place duly licensed, for each day of such exhibition a fee of five dollars.

(27.) Every astrologer, seer, fortune teller and clairvoyant, fifty dollars for every six months.

2. The form of licence will be in accordance with the Schedule C annexed to and forming part of the "Municipal Clauses Act, 1896," and all licences granted under this by-law shall terminate on the 15th day of July, and the 15th day of January, respectively, and no proportionate reduction shall be made on account of any person or persons commencing business between these dates.

3. Provided, however, that the holder of any licence granted by the Provincial Government for the sale of intoxicating liquor, and which licence expires at any time before the 15th day of January, 1899, the said holder of such licence may be granted a licence under sub-sections (1), (3) or (5), section 1 hereof, from the date of expiration of such licence, till the 15th day of January, 1899, as the case may be, at a rate proportionate to the number of days from the time such licence expires, to the 15th day of July, 1898, or the 15th day of January, 1899, as the case may be.

4. All licences granted under authority of this by-law shall be issued by the person authorised for that purpose by the Council: Provided always that no licence for the sale of liquors shall be issued except by an order from the Board of Licensing Commissioners.

5. This by-law may be cited for all purposes as "Trades Licence By-Law, No. 6, 1898."
